

Camila Cabello, Hot Uptown (ft. Drake)

Nike my shoe maker
Benz are my car maker
Tiffany my ring maker
Let me grip on your money maker
Okay
Grip on your money maker
Okay
Hotline, ah gon' bling later
Trust me, we ah link later

When it's hot uptown
And you miss my love
Tryna calm me down
Couldn't give me up

Hot uptown
When you miss my love
And you want me back

Two hands on my waist
One hand on your face
You're too weak to handle me, my babe
You should play it safe
Please know that you're making a mistake
Giving me my space
You better hang on to me this time
You better

I'm tryna hang on to you this time
You-
Trying my patience
Trying something else might even work in your favor
Trying to forget me doesn't work when he's basic Trying one more time 'cause we look so good on paper
Trying me

I don't think you're ready for a love like mine
I don't think you're worthy of my time
You know pisces low key the best sign
Lucky man who gets me in my prime

When it's hot uptown
And you miss my love
Tryna calm me down
Couldn't make this up

Hot uptown
And you miss my love
Do you want me back?

Two hands on my waist
One hand on your face
You're too weak to handle me, my babe
You should play it safe

Please know that you're making a mistake
Giving me my space
You better hang on to me this time
You better
