

Camouflage, Harmful

Harmful I touch your skin
I feel you
And the truth within
And all I can do
Is hope you feel it too

Theres pain inside
My body n soul
Its alright
After all my sweet lies
The bitter thorns in your side

Twists on and on
And all I can do
Is hope to feel it too
Follow me the where its coming from

We will find the place where we belong
There is noone who compares to you
And I hope that you can feel it too

Harmful you touch my skin
I feel you
And the truth within
And all i can do
Is hope you feel it too
