

Camouflage, We Are Lovers

In a sea of moments
We were sinking down the ground
After all these years together
We're still traveling around
All the places
All the faces
Led us to another point of view
In a world of "A.W.N.I.A.H."
It is hard to find the truth

We are lovers in different ways
We still dream of the better days
We hear promises on the phone
But life differs, right from wrong

In a field of mindgames
Time is coming up again --
And our memories are fading
Every now and then
All the places
All the faces
Led us to another point of view
In a world of "A.W.N.I.A.H."
We're still seeking for the clues

All we do together
This is forever
Believe me, a dream comes true...
