

Camouflage, You Turn

I've seen the eyes of an angel
I've built on lies with you
I've read your lips of longing
For this reckless ride so cruel
I've been in reach of danger
I've seen this rise before
I take my hands off the wheel
And see
It's coming to an end
We never noticed where we are
It's coming to an end
We didn't see we went too far
It's coming to an end
We never notice what we are
It's coming to an end
We never noticed what we are
It's coming to an end

No destination for the car
I've picked you up in eden
And now we're corner hell
Cause I've been believin'
That this hitch-hike ends up well
I've clicked the belt while speeding
You've put my foot down more
I take my hands off the wheel
And see
It's coming to an end
We didn't see we went too far
It's coming to an end
We never noticed what we are
It's coming to an end
No destination for the car
