Camp, I Sing For You

I sing for you And only you Where ever I go I find you You're in the sound of every hello In everything I do You're the song I was destined to know And I only sing for you

You went away I should have known You leave so many dreams behind you Thought I'd be fine just being alone I didn't have a clue But my heart had a mind of its own And would only sing for you

You're in the sound of rain Clouds in a winter sky In a thousand unsaid words In a thousand crazy reasons why You were meant to fly

So fly for me And day by day I'll keep hoping your heart reminds you Nothing but love can stand in our way But love can see us through Maybe that's all I wanted to say I will always sing for you I will always sing for you
