

Cancerslug, All That Remains

a new war is coming its our turn to die bend over and kiss your asses goodbye signs are converging dark queen arise through the mountains of madness we ride never knowing the answers waking slowly we the children of oblivion knowing that we are all f**ked i dont care what the future may bring nothing matters if you are here with me there is no end to the trouble we seek and we wouldnt have it any other way
in the black hours all things are seen shadow rituals open the sea watch the sky burst open in flames but our love will last though hell and earth are changed its all that remains
