

Cancerslug, Pale Moonlight

when its gone...

life is meaningless, until its gone but who gives a f**k when its gone?

when its gone...

you cannot see the end, until its gone there is no more light in your eyes lonely conviction

lonely goodbye

and your eyes look so helpless in the night, by the pale moonlight and i will be there, holding you tight as the blood flows like rain all through the night, in the pale moonlight

when its gone...

losing everything

all f**king gone

i need to hear your screams you stole my everything always the last to know its your turn to feel it now
