

Candlebox, He Calls Home

Well I see him everyday
In that blanket that he calls home
I wonder does he know
That his family they're left alone
He says brother can you spare
Can you spare a dime
I'm down to my last dollar
And this life of mine
Said this life of mine
It gets rough at times
Now I wonder does he know
Does he even care
That his family, they're safe at home and they wonder where
As he wanders through his life, he's ever searchin' for
A warm blanket on warm fields and he wanders on
And he wonders is he safe from the cold
Safe out from the cold
Well I see he left the other day
Took his blanket that he called home
Did he go for good
Or did he pass away
Well I wonder does he know
See I'm down to my last dollar
And this life of mine
Said this life of mine, it gets rough at times
And now I wonder does he know
Does he even care
That my family is safe at home
And they wonder where
As I wander through my life
Ever searchin' for
My warm blanket on warm fields as I wander on
And I wonder
Will I always help along
I said I, I'll never know
No, no
Because I
I'll never go and yes, I
I said I wonder why, yeah
Because I, I
Oh now
I'll never go home
I'll never come home
Never come home
Oh won't you let me come home
'Cause I wanna home
Oh, said, oh I got...
Oh
I'll never know
Yes, I, I'll never go
No, no
Yes, I, I said I wonder why
Yeah, because
Oh, oh no, I'll never come home
I'll never come
Never come home
Home...
I wanna come home
Won't you let me come home
'Cause I wanna come home
Let me come home...
