

Candlemass, Demon Of The Deep

Black chiseled beast
Under the surface
Demon of the deep
Above is Ursus
Cold water dome
Ancient predator
Atlantis is home
For this carnivore
Tyrant of the abyss
Plague of the seas
Tentacle kiss
Razor sharp teeth
Guardian of the grave
3 hellish heads
10 miles below
The city of the dead
Satan obsolete, your pitch black sheep, yours forever
Demon Amethyst, your world's not lit, a sunken wasteland
Oh your name was lost, in the myths for us, and never spoken loud
Born in Triton's caves
A million years away
Seeking out his prey
On his endless odyssey
Down there in the darkness
Centuries of evil
And his arms will take you deeper and deeper
God lives under water
We all seek his kingdom
And you feel his embrace, sweeter and sweeter
