

Candyskins, Too Much To Ask

h's the first time i've ever felt this lonely wish someone would cure my pain h's funny when you think it's gonna work out i thought you were cool until the point Up until the point you didnt call me when you said you would Finally figiured out your all the same

(Corus)
Everytime i try to make you smile
Your always feeling sorry for yourself Everytime i try to make you laugh you cant your to tough you think your loveless is that too much that im asking for Thought youd come around when i igored you sorta thought youd have the decenay But babe guess you didnt take that warning cause im not about to bok at your face again

Cant you see that you lie to yourself
You cant see the world though a mirror
It non't be to late when the smoke clears Cause i am still here

(chorus)

Cant find where i am lying here alone in fear afraid of the dark knowone to claim alone again

(chorus)
