

Canibus, Adversarial Theatre Of Justice

(Canibus)

I'll punish you, slash you with serrated blades
I'll punish you, watch your breath fade away
I'll punish you, send you to that big pie in the sky
When I'm finished with you, you'll be dieing to die
Motherfucker, I'll demolish you, steal your corpse from the hospital
Smuggle you home, and polish you
If I want to get you, I'll get you with a Daisy Cutter missile
So I don't know why you got a nine with you
I'll punish you, slash you with serrated blades
I'll punish you, watch your breath fade away
I'll punish you, send you to that big pie in the sky
When I'm finished with you, you'll be dieing to die
I gave you the options, allowed you to choose
Gave you a style you could use
Now you fucking with some grimy dudes
Your blood could end up on the bottom of shoes
If you was rich, I still wouldn't share a dollar with you
I didn't know stigmata was true, did you?
I'll punish you, take you to the edge of your resolve
Punish you, present you with a problem that you can't solve
Punish you, because pain is your God
I put bars of galls between your bladder walls
I'll attack you all, punish you for what you are
Show you what a black hole could do to a star
I'll punish you //
