Canibus, Barbarian Outro

(Canibus)

Alien Warfare' aviators in the sky

Barbarian pride created a beat for my rhymes

Deep below covert, completely ensconced in my work

My work takes place below the dirt

A color darker than black, what's darker than that

I tell you, a light gradiant that does not refract

I sit on a stone bench completely undisturbed in a sense

At the bottom of the Marianas Trench

In a Plexiglas cube with a three hundred and sixty degree view

Spinning in a giant megaplume

Contemplating death or doom, trying not to behave consumed

But I can't seem to do it, can you

Don't be anti-patriotic, long winded and short sighted

Your logic is probably composed of counterfeit knowledge

Go to college, learn how to build a nuclear rocket

Learn how to live without it after you learn how to survive it

If you like me, write about it, put it on your album

Get the most savage MC to be your co-pilot

Rhyme knowledge, nothing but space pilot avionics

On board the Polaris invented by Jack Carson

Underwater, my insignia's the silver dolphin

On the dolphin scanner talking, hammerhead shark stalking

Soft oriental carpets, artifacts and other objects

A conservative life, but its honest I promise

Boots always stay spit-shine polished

Ever since war college, graduated with honours

Dionysus knowledge, my cross hairs spit beautiful flowers

In the shower with Jessica Alba

Scrubbing her skin with gunpowder

I cant talk to y'all niggas right now, Ill be out in an hour

Enter the confirmation code, Canibus flow tabulated below

The payload deflagrated your home

Deflagrate a rapper's face then lie about how he passed away

I told that bastard he had to pay

Professor of fragology watching a G-shock anomaly

Wanna talk about it? Talk to me

I know you can't see the rhyme cause the flows too fast

Below C equals mass, beyond C, no mass

Bomb your army as soon as they call me

The real 'Ikari Warriors' taught me then lost me

Repeat the oath in the name of the occult

Even from overseas I perceive your pulse

Close calls, call close, remember all the quotes

The bars I wrote to harness your hope
