

Cannibal Corpse, Mummified In Barbed Wire

[Music: Webster]

[Lyrics: Webster]

Wrap the wire round the neck, pull it tight to suffocate His mouth is spewing steaming blood Hang the body with a cord, gag his mouth with shards of steel He doesn't know the pain he'll feel Interwoven deadly spikes, tightening cables lacerate
Assorted gashes open wide Ruptured veins are gushing blood, scraps of skin are flying off
The body of the helpless prey

Jagged cable binds, you scream, No escape Metal barbs tearing at you, Rend your flesh

Tear apart the tendons,
wire chokes the victim
Shred away his features, shred away his being Rip the tissue from the body, Rend your flesh

Lacerate, sharp spikes rip
Mutilate, pierce the skin

Mummified in the barbed wire
Breathing stops, life expires
Mummified in the barbed wire
Metal binds as you die

Tangled in a web of pain, No escape Blood seeps through the metal sheath,
Saw-like noose

Tear apart the tendons,
wire chokes the victim
Shred away his features,
shred away his being Gleaming cords encase the corpse, No escape

Lacerate, sharp spikes rip

Mummified in the barbed wire
Breathing stops, life expires
Mummified in the barbed wire
Metal binds as you die

Steel wraps your face, blood soaks the steel Bound in wire, soon to die, life choked out, bleed to death
