

Cantatonia, To And Fro

If you swing to and fro
Let your inhibitions go
They're crippling and useless

I'll be your enemy
If that's what you want me to be
Yeah that will do nicely

I know this world's got the measure of me
And I know...but I'm not quite as sure as I should be

Life's such an irritant

For a picture of innocence like me
Now what do you take me for

And so much is waiting
All waiting for me
My guaranteed cemetery

I know this world's got the measure of me
And I know...but I'm not quite as sure as I should be Sure as I should be, sure as I should be
