Cantatonia, To And Fro

If you swing to and fro Let your inhibitions go They're crippling and useless

I'll be your enemy If that's what you want me to be Yeah that will do nicely

I know this world's got the measure of me And I know...but I'm not quite as sure as I should be

Life's such an irritant

For a picture of innocense like me Now what do you take me for

And so much is waiting All waiting for me My guaranteed cemetary

I know this world's got the measure of me And I know...but I'm not quite as sure as I should be Sure as I should be, sure as I should be
