Cantrell Blu, 10,000 Times

Cantrell Blu
So Blu
10,000 Times
Thanks to smileyriley2009@aol.com for these lyrics.

Been in love 10,000 times, and I've been hurt 10,000 times
Yet and still you want a try But what would do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too

Been a long time since I been serious
Now you're curious
Well I can't stand to feel your touch
I might start to like it a little too much, and it hurts
But I'm pushin' you away
Cause three months from
And now you won't stay
Just when lovin' get good, you'll be gone
And I'll be left with a broken heart to heal all alone

Been in love 10,000 times, and I've been hurt 10,000 times
Yet and still you want a try But what would do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too

Keep telling me it won't be
What I'm used to, you won't hurt me
But that's so hard to believe, 'cause everyone has said the same damn thing to me,
 And the sad thing is I want you
But my heart keeps telling me
Don't trust you, 'cause just when the loving gets good, you'll be gone
And I'll be left with a broken heart to heal all alone

Been in love 10,000 times, and I've been hurt 10,000 times
Yet and still you want a try But what would do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too

Been in love 10,000 times, and I've been hurt 10,000 times
Yet and still you want a try But what would do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too

Maybe love just ain't for me
Why does this keep happening
Maybe one day I'll trust you, but for now
Here's what I'm gonna say to you!

Been in love 10,000 times, and I've been hurt 10,000 times
Yet and still you want a try But what would do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too

Been in love 10,000 times, and I've been hurt 10,000 times
Yet and still you want a try But what would do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too
