

Cantrell Jerry, Settling Down

Though you're always on my mind
Found a sickness that was mine
Chose a life out on the run
All alone inside this game
Until i'm done
Sometimes i don't think i can trust myself no more
Seems i've failed you all my life
Youthful dreams you'd be my wife
Before i fall into the sun
If there never is again
You were the one
Sometimes i don't think i can trust myself no more
So i don't feel that i can love you anymore
On this settling down
Oh i better lay down & rest awhile
On this settling down
Oh i better lay down & rest awhile
Sometimes i don't think i can trust myself no more
And i don't know if i can love you anymore
On this settling down
Oh i better lay down & rest awhile
On this settling down
Oh i better lay down & rest awhile
And i say no
