Cantrell Jerry, Settling Down

Though you're always on my mind Found a sickness that was mine

Chose a life out on the run

All alone inside this game

Until i'm done

Sometimes i don't think i can trust myself no more

Seems i've failed you all my life

Youthful dreams you'd be my wife

Before i fall into the sun

If there never is again

You were the one

Sometimes i don't think i can trust myself no more

So i don't feel that i can love you anymore

On this settling down

Oh i better lay down & amp; rest awhile

On this settling down

Oh i better lay down & amp; rest awhile

Sometimes i don't think i can trust myself no more

And i don't know if i can love you anymore

On this settling down

Oh i better lay down & amp; rest awhile

On this settling down

Oh i better lay down & amp; rest awhile

And i say no
