

Capital Cities, New Town Crier

Wake up, wake up
Show me your eyes
You slept through the morning
Now it's time to rise

Wake up, wake up
Show me your heart
Your life's just a moment
Now it's time to start

Cross the river
Jump the fire
We are walking on a tight-rope wire

Think deeper, climb higher
Even you could be the new town crier

Wake up, wake up
Show me your face
You slept through the night
You're gonna miss the race

Wake up, wake up
This is your time
To leave all your worries
and excuses behind
