

Caravan, Heartbreaker

I fell from the right side into the dark
I did time with the Bullet Boys and I thought that really smart
Then you came to me with that smile on your face
Light&#039;s in your eyes and no sense of disgrace

Heartbreaker, I felt for you so
Soul taker, now everybody knows
Nobody knew it quite as well
While with you was a heartache, without you is a hell

If I thought of anyone, I thought of myself
I stood crying with my fingers high, I didn&#039;t need nobody else
Then you took me down with a flash and a grin
Showed me what it&#039;s all about and flew me back on in

You can feel cold when you&#039;re getting old, you can feel tall when you&#039;re sma
Would you think twice when a summer night&#039;s gonna run for you to call
If it hits you like a thunderbolt right between the eyes
You don&#039;t know what is happening, you just feel surprised
