

Caravan, The Show Of Our Lives

Have you heard our story?
A mystery it seems
Gather 'round, come listen
See the spectacle within
Take your seats and in a moment
The curtain will rise
Presenting the show of our lives

The curtains draw slowly
The fanfare sounds true
The audience starts cheering
The spotlight's on you
As the scene grows before you
The mirror is set
A performance we will not forget

For this is the show of our lives

The stage is still and silent
No cries, no cheers, no-one
And yet we feel the glory
The show still goes on
So ring the bells and sing
Shout with all your hearts set
A performance we will not forget

For this is the show of our lives

Ring the bells and sing
Gather 'round and sing
