

Carl Cartee, I Have Found A Friend

I have found a friend in Jesus
In Him I can place all my trust
Though I'm fragile in His strength I stand
Jesus is my hope for living
Understanding and forgiving
Greater love has not been shown to man
I have found a friend

Mountains and hills are all his own
The sands of the sea He can number
The glories of heaven are His home but the greatest of all these wonders...

He walked on the water of the sea
Gave life to the sick and the dying
Died for the sins of a thief and me
I am forever grateful
