

Carlene Carter, Appalachian Eyes

Morning fell

Like the hair round her sure was soft and shinin'

And the valley was green

As the eyes of the man who could not hold her

She was the reason

Many heart beat blue, blue, blue

Chorus

Oh your blue, blue, blue Appalachian eyes

Oh your blue, blue, blue Appalachian eyes

I saw her runnin' scared like the look on her face

She lost her shoe

Never turned to look back

I could not help her

She was the reason

Many heart beat blue, blue, blue

Repeat Chorus

Sure as a "bullet";

She lost her love slipping silently over Clinch Mountain

Repeat Chorus Several Times
