

Carlene Carter, The Leavin' Side

(Carlene Carter/Keith Christopher/Tom Gray)

Hey baby there's two sides to every story
I've heard them one too many times
Just stop callin' I'm not falling anymore
I've had enough of all your charms
Once and for all that's enough for a life time
Love's lost at long last it's over
Close the door and walk away
On the leavin' side
You can cry and cry and I won't listen
I can't hear you anymore
You can lie your lies and I won't miss 'em
Hey just walk out that door
Once and for all that's enough for a life time
Love's lost at long last it's over
Close the door and walk away
On the leavin' side
Hey baby love may come and love may go
But now it's gone for good
Just stop tryin' I'm not buyin' anymore
I've taken all I could
Once and for all that's enough for a life time
Love's lost at long last it's over
Close the door and walk away
On the leavin' side
Oh it's over close the door
And walk away on the leavin' side
Na na na na...
