

Carlos Santana, Once It's Gotcha

One taste
That aint so much
You think youll be safe from her touch

She calls
You cant hide
Your backs to the wall, the walls on fire

Ooh, when her music starts to play
Ooh, you could dance your life away.

Once its gotcha, never set you back down
Once its gotcha, youll lose your head in the clouds

Sweet dreams
Of her kiss
No heaven could be quite like this

Your love
Runs so strong
You cant get enough, right or wrong

Ooh, when her music starts to play
Ooh, you could dance your life away
