

Carlos Ukareda, Whiskey Won't Forget (Estonia -

I wonder if sometimes
I still cross your mind
Does your mama ask about me
I hope she's doing alright

Baby i still keep
Your number in my phone
And your sweater's still
Hanging in my room

Even though I know it's over
And even though I know you're no good for me
But baby I, maybe I might have something you still need
If you're lonely, you can call me up
And we can say the things we should've said
'Cause I'm three drinks in
And whiskey won't forget

I remember the weekend
We spent in your hometown
We were standing in the pouring rain
When the tears came pouring down
I said I love you but I don't know how to work it out

Even though I know it's over
And even though I know you're no good for me
But baby I, maybe I might have something you still need
If you're lonely, you can call me up
And we can say the things we should've said
'Cause I'm three drinks in
And whiskey won't forget

Your high heels and
Levi's jeans
Something about you
I can't do without
I can't get over it
And I tried to Give it some time
But I'm not giving up just yet

Even though I know it's over
And even though I know you're no good for me
But baby I, maybe I might have something you still need
If you're lonely, you can call me up
And we can say the things we should've said
'Cause I'm three drinks in

Whiskey won't forget
