

Carly Simon, The Love's Still Growing

(Buzzy Linhart)

And I'm so high
I can't go on
Oh but I
Can sing this song

Because the love's still growing
And the love's still growing

Some folk say
That all hope is gone
But today, the world is one

Because the love's still growing
And the love's still growing

It's time to say
It's time to know that it's O.K., that some must go.
