Carole King, Anyone At All

Funny how I feel more myself with you Than anybody else that I ever knew I hear it in your voice,see it in your face You've become a memory I can't erase

You could have been anyone at all A stranger falling out of the blue I'm so glad it was you

It wasn't in the plan, not that I could see Suddenly a miracle came to me Safe within your arms I can say what's true Nothing in the world I would keep from you

You could have been anyone at all An old friend calling out of the blue I'm so glad it was you

Words can hurt you if you let them People say them and forget them Words can promise Words can lie But your words make me feel like I can fly

You could have been anyone at all And that's what catches me when I fall I'm so glad it was you

You could have been anyone at all An old friend falling out of the blue I'm so glad it was you

Anyone at all You could have been anyone at all I'm so glad it was you
