

Carole King, Can't You Be Real

Long ago we had our dreams
And that was all that we needed
Then all at once we got to see
The cycles we repeated

Baby, can't you be real
I said, Baby, can't you be real

Anyone can look into your eyes
And tell you what you're missin'
It's been told to you many times before
But you refuse to listen

Baby, can't you be real
Oh, Baby, can't you be real
I said, Baby, can't you be real
