Carole King, It's Going To Take Some Time

It's going to take some time this time To get myself in shape I really fell out of line this time I really missed the gate

The birds on the telephone line (next time)
Are cryin' out to me (next time)
And I won't be so blind next time
And I'll find some harmony

But it's going to take some time this time And I can't make demands But like the young trees in the wintertime I'll learn how to bend

After all the tears we've spent How could we make amends So it's one more round for experience And I'm on the road again And it's going to take some time this time

It's going to take some time this time No matter what I've planned And like the young trees in the wintertime I'll learn how to bend

After all the tears we've spent How could we make amends So it's one more round for experience And I'm on the road again And it's going to take some time this time
