

Carole King, It's Gonna Work Out Fine

We've been putting each other through a hard time
And it's a mighty good feeling to know we're gonna work it out
It's gonna work out
Yeah, it's gonna work out fine

Take a look at the way it's going now
Makes you want to give a sigh of relief
You know the last thing I ever wanted to do
Was to give you any grief
I guess it was a situation
That was bound to come up someday
But our feeling for each other won out
And I'm oh-so-glad to say

Even the best of relationships
Run the risk of going awry
There's a lot two people who care about each other
Can do to make each other cry
Ain't it funny how it took a reunion
To help us to really see
With each other is the only way we can ever be
