

Carolina Lost, Beautiful World

Here it comes in the morning
I'm just trying to forget
Keep it real, keep it simple
And somehow just get out of bed
And this city is endless
I'm as cold as it's stone
Yeah this city is endless
And I'm, I'm walking alone

CHORUS

Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets there's no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend 'til I'm almost certain
It's a beautiful world
I wanna ask for direction
But I don't dare to disturb
I got a thing with affections
Yeah, that's why I'm walking alone

CHORUS

Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets there's no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend 'til I'm almost certain
It's a beautiful world
Here it comes in the morning?

CHORUS

Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets there's no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend 'til I'm almost certain
It's a beautiful world
(Yeah, it's a beautiful world)
la la la la
I pretend 'til I'm almost certain
It's a beautiful world
