

Carpathian Forest, Christian Incoherent Drivel

As the decades and centuries rolled by
Most of the christians no longer thought
That the second coming of christ
Would take place in their own lifetime
They firmly believed
The awaited return of jesus christ
To earth in order to judge
The living and the dead
But they thought its possible
That these holy events
Might not come to pass
For hundreds or thousands of years
On the basis of a complex numerical Calculations involving the symbolic Interpretation of the so called
Book of truth
Still the preachers of our modern age
Which prophecies claimed true
Admit and coness your pathetic sin
Then you kneel and let the brainwash begin
The world will be swept by war and plagues
All evil will control humanity
Many will follow the beast 666
And take up arms against christ
The battle of armageddon is near
Apocalypse pestilence war famine and death
The demons of finality
From the sky they came
As written in biblical times
The vision of the destruction fo earth
The future is dark and violent
Carpathian Forest wants you dead, DEAD!
10. The Old House On The Hill
He lives in a old house on the hill
This elderly man of dark secrets
Haunted by the memories decades ago
Which shaped this man throughout his life
The old house on the hill
A call from hell
Far from people, he lives in the past
Alone by himself, always alone to the last
A saw, a drill and hammering on nails
The curtain covers the dusty windows
Scratching sounds and the sound of knives
Being sharpened from time to time
The old house on the hill
The old house on the hill
