

Carter The Unstoppable Sex Machine, After The V

Exhibit F, the reporters said loved you to death after the watershed Between the Open University and closedown you were dead

He's warmed your cockles with his magic tricks glasses, bottles, bottles, filter tips John Player Special Number 666

Exhibit G from the family firm his bride to be taking twisted turns To give you French kisses and Chinese burns

You see, she'd had a skinful and she couldn't stop like a pitbull in a china shop And all the King's social workers, the ghurkas and the cops somehow couldn't love you back to life again now

A black eye for a black eye
a chipped tooth for a chipped tooth
a fraction of a half life
some housework and some home truths
And nothing but the home truth
Nothing but the home truth
Nothing but the home truth

And it's goodbye Ruby Tuesday
Come home you silly cow
We've baked a cake and your friends are waiting and David Icke says he'd like to show us how to love you back to life again now

Goodbye Ruby Tuesday
Come home you silly cow
We've baked a cake and your friends are waiting... waiting... waiting...

AND DAVID ICKE SAYS!

Come home you silly cow
We've baked a cake and your friends are waiting
and David Icke says
Goodbye, you silly cow Come home
come home
come home
come home

a chipped tooth for a chipped tooth
some housework and some home truths
And nothing but the home truth
