

Cashless, Bulletproof

Fuck off I'm against it, no matter what you say,
I know I can't trust, you're lying the whole day.
All you politicians, businessmen and fools,
you spread hate around the world and your religion kills.
I don't wanna be part of the machinery,
I'm not a tool of senseless war.
I stand up and raise my voice, you can shoot me down,
you can shoot me, but you can't shoot my words.
Bulletproof-fight against the world
Bulletproof-you can't shoot my words
Bulletproof-alone against the world
Bulletproof-you can't shoot my words
I won't fight for your own god and for nothing else,
for damn power and for money-freedom to the world!
Don't you understand me, are you deaf or blind,
you think you're sophisticated-it's only in your mind!
I don't wanna be part of the machinery,
I'm not a tool of senseless war.
I stand up and raise my voice, you can shoot me down,
you can shoot me, but you can't shoot my words.
Whoo ooh-fight, fight, fight, fight.
