

Cashless, The Kids

You want to be something special-I know.
You think you're better than the rest,
but your life is a fuckin'mess.
You still believe in those phrases that you heard,
with your unity t-shirt, treatin'everyone like dirt.
United with the kids that's fuckin'wrong
You're just united with yourself-all alone.
You talk about being united-being united.
But all I see is you fighting-see you fighting oh yeah.
You talk about being united-being united
But all I see is you fighting-see you fighting.
You want to be part of the scene.
But you really don't know what that means.
It means much more than to be against.
It's about being free and not about my credibility, fuck the punk rock scene police.
