CASSIDY verse 1

life is cruel but u could choose your life and if you dont make tha right moves you could lose your life and that aint cool theres rules you gotta use in life but i'll make tha news tryin to get some food to bite dudes drool when they see my jewls cubes of ice so i dont go no where without tha tools at night (RIGHT) this for my niggaz thats tryin to choose they and my sistas thats tryin to choose the dudes they like they call all men dogs but ya'll prove em right until they get confused and wanna choose a dike and your right hand man that you refuse to fight might stab you in tha back but wont use a knife (RIGHT) dont get it confused i move tha white i get cream from tha feinds that abuse tha pipe i like money ,guns ,ice and slot of k so stress is tha price i guess i gotta pay
