

Casting Pearls, Weighted

This I know, there's a higher place we can go
So much more to this life than what you live for
I do believe there is a love that sets you free
From all your pain so you can fly again
Loves waited here for far too long
Real soon I fear loves moving on
Here we go, on your mark get set let's go
Seize the day, make a change from the life I've known
I need Your love to make me whole and set me free
Break all these chains so I can fly again
I've waited here for far too long
I'm breaking free
I'm moving on
To the hope that's waiting for me
To the life I'm meant to be living
To the love You died to give me
You can't find me this kind of love here
You can't buy me this love anywhere
You can't hide from this kind of love
This love comes looking for you
I've been weighted here for far too long
Been holding on to what
You saved me from I've waited here for far too long
I'm breaking free, I'm moving on
Yesterday's a million miles away
