

Casualties, Punk Rock

Casualties

Miscellaneous

Punk Rock

Committed from the beginning

There is no fucking turning back

Forgotten youth, just wastes away

Always forward, never look back

Break all fucking barriers

This street noise is all we've got

Fury and fucking anger

No more rules for the punx

Fuck you - no rules for me

Fuck you - I do as I please

Make some noise

Piss 'em off

Fuck 'em up

That's Punk Rock

So straight edge is the way

I go out and drink all day

Tell me to shut up and drink

I'll stay sober and eat my beans

If being vegan is the way

I'll eat hot dogs in your face

So you hate the PC crew

I write a peace song just for you

Fuck you - no rules for me

Fuck you - I do as I please

Too many rules

Fuck their rules

So you hate the spiky hair

I'll grow my Mohawk and make you stare

All these rules you have created

Won't force the kids just for your sake

So get it through your fucking head

It's up to you what to eat and wear

Militant Closed-minded fools

You're the church and schools of the youth
