

Cat Power, Woman (feat. Lana Del Rey)

if you know people who know me you might want them to speak to tell you about the girl or the woman they know more than you think you know about me more than you think you know see you walking in circles see you talking in circles see you thoughts running in circles and walk around all day long, following me the doctor said I was better than ever mind you should have seen my doctor said I was not my past he said I was finally free taking the change

I took the lead
I need you to believe

I'm a woman of my word
now haven't you heard
my word's the only thing I've ever needed?
I'm a woman of my word
my word's the only thing I truly need woman /12x

your money's like a weapon a tool to get me you think I'm like the other ones well, my money's like a weapon tool for me no I;m not like those other ones a cage sis like a weapon a tool for me
you think I'm like the other ones
my cage is a weapon it's perfect for me it's the one suit they seem to not see

I'm a woman of my word
my word's the only thing I've ever needed?
woman /12x
