

Cat Stevens, I'm Gonna Be King

I've been pushed around made to look a clown but now, now I know it is time for me to start to grow

I'm gonna be king
I'm gonna see things right
I'm gonna be king
and you will be my bride

I'll show everyone that my time will come
If you wait for me
I will show the world what I can be

I'm gonna be king
I'm gonna see things right
I'm gonna be king
and you will be my bride

Love does funny things and to me it brings strength to carry through and to make my name a pride to use

I'm gonna be king
I'm gonna see things right
I'm gonna be king
and you will be my bride
