Cat Stevens, I've Found A Love

Baby, I've never had a single thing in my life I could call my own. There you were, holding a love so true, Now I've got a home, now I've got a home.

I found a love, hidden in a backstreet I found a love, baby I found a love, hidden in a backstreet Hidden away from the world, baby

Baby, you really make me feel like a king, a king without a crown. But darlin', Promise me one little thing: That you won't let me down.

I found a love, hidden in a backstreet I found a love, baby I found a love, hidden in a backstreet Hidden away from the world, baby

Don't ever tell me lies baby, Don't take it for a ride baby, Just stay here by my side baby, We won't ever stop.

I found a love, hidden in a backstreet I found a love, baby I found a love, hidden in a backstreet Hidden away from the world, baby
