

Cat Stevens, Where Are You

I know I think a lot
but somehow it just doesn't help it only makes it worse

The more I think
The more I know
the more it hurts

With only solitude to meet me like a friend oh, where are you?
where are you ? where are you?

Maybe she sits alone
beyond the storm
across the raging torrent of the sea she knows I want her and she knows I'll always be...
How can I live without the love I cannot see Oh where are you?
where are you ?
where are you?

ooooooooohhhh

I know there's someone there I hear her breathe
behind the silence of the dark but I know that I won't see
'til we open up our eyes together She'll look at me
What a moment that moment will be!

And she looks so light
I could fly her through the night

ooh

I know I think a lot
but somehow it just doesn't help it only goes to show that what you never miss you never know but I have loved you from the moment that we knew oh, I love you
I love you
but where are you?
