

Catalepsy, Punishment

I can see that you remain
Consumed inside your mind
I can see everything
That you fucking hide
I see the scum
That forms beneath your skin
I see your mask
This is for everything
Disregard the fact
Your ignorance has brought this on
Now we're here watching you regret it all.
Prepare to burn
Prepare to suffer
For every word you spoke
On every line you'll fucking choke.
This is punishment
We see
You're scum
This is Punishment
This will not be fast.
For your ignorance
For your selfishness
For your weakness
