

Catamenia, The Fallen Angel Pt. II (The Rising)

For new era to come
No mercy shall done
For those on my way
And i will surely prevail
As vowed for name astarte
Revenge shall be one part
As now betrayals crushed
All behind turns to dust
- Our victory on battle -
So now i`ve reached the crown
On my feet mortals go down
From shadows my army rides
To end up weakness and light
Now there`s throne for two
I rule the world with you
No enemy shall defeat
Cause we have the only key
- Our victory for the crown -
So now i`ve reached the crown
On my feet mortals go down
From shadows my army rides
To end up weakness and light
- Our victory for eternity -
So now i`ve reached the crown
On my feet mortals go down
From shadows my army rides
To end up weakness and light
