Do You Believe In Me

I'm andy cole's tortured soul lost out again in front of goal

I wish i had your cocaine confidence

Some girls are easier on the eye but could you take the silent lives

I wish i had your full on arrogance

But i'm a white witch, mad bitch, hooked on drugs the jury's out, the lawyer shrugs

The angel on my shoulder falls asleep

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

I thought i was columbus, turns out antarctic scott

And i always ate my friends along the way

But don't ask about the reasons nor reason with my aims

The closer you'll appear the less i'll say

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Silent fool but give me time and i might prove, i could do anything i choose

I'm andy cole's tortured soul lost out again in front of goal

I wish i had your cocaine confidence

But i'm a white witch, mad bitch, hooked on drugs the jury's out, the lawyer shrugs

And all the wine you had just left me sober

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me

(drink puts the angel on my shoulder to sleep)

Do you believe in me or are you leaving me
