

Catherine MacLellan, Dark Dream Midnight

I am blue healing water, rain
I am forward moving river, I am sky on cloudless day
I am ocean large mysterious, I am eyes searching
I am calm and endless blue
Have you heard the words I'm saying have you listened to your heart
Know that within the stillness
Nothing can pull us apart
It is love I'm conveying oh mother of light
When you fear that there is nothing
I am the only thing in sight.
I am red passion flowing
I am anger justified
I am fires of creation
I am roses still outside
I am love always going, I am red wine
Dancing woman fiery song of lust
I am dark dream midnight
All the cries that you have sent me
All the tears that you have shed
I will gather all together
Turn to gold what once was lead
Heavy burden on your shoulder
Too many thoughts inside your head
All will be as light as feathers
Bring to life what once was dead
I am blue healing water, rain
I am forward moving river, I am sky on cloudless day
I am ocean large mysterious, I am eyes searching
I am calm and endless blue
I am red passion flowing
I am anger justified
I am fires of creation
I am roses still outside
I am love always going, I am red wine
Dancing woman fiery song of lust
