

Catherine Wheel, Goodbye

someone said it's easy and as I sit here with my cup staring at it as if I'm some crazy poet when I'm not, I'm just a rock n' roll Joe with tales of woe and tears and fears

it's only love that stops you from walking out the door tears fly somewhere close to remorse and sometimes its easy to all my friends I love I still don't find it easy

I've arrived

Sally likes it sideways Sally oh Sally don't ever change and please don't think me scary cos I'm not, I'm just a rock n' roll Joe

and tears fly somewhere close to remorse
but sometimes it's easy
to all my friends I love
now I find this easy to all my friends I love I love I love

I finally arrived

and somewhere close to here
