

Catherine Wheel, Half Life

So high it's hurting
So wide the line is drawn
I've gotta learn to stop myself from falling
Down so low

So don't die it's over
I've got a life, I've got a place to grow
I've gotta learn to stop myself from falling
Down so low

There's still time to grow
You know you know
It's so hard to think clearly

Clear
So clear
I've gotta learn to stop myself from falling
Down so low

There's no time to build
It's no horror film
It's so hard to think clearly

Ah
Ah
Ah
Ah - ooh

There's still time to grow
You know, you know
It's so hard to think clearly

Ah... Ah... Ah... Ah... Ah...
