

Catherine Wheel, Shocking

Old style in it seems they've brought you everything
There's an old style in of days when we were all thirteen
Yeah these pictures of love are a testament to the memories

When I think of you it's shocking
Oooh it's shocking
Oooh

Now it's "Oh my god this time he crushed some aspirin"
Dissolved in love he always made the best of it!
Yeah he spilled it all to The Sun months before punk had Taken off
He had the pictures to prove
What a soaraway dude is guilty of

When I think of you it's shocking
Oooh it's shocking Oooh it's shocking

But won't you listen to me, why can't you believe
That you're breaking my heart
And these moments were part of our lives
And it destroys me to see you destroy them
Every time

When I think of you it's shocking
Oooh it's shocking Oooh it's shocking

So you wanna know what's my crime?
Love, I'm guilty every time
Love, this love, I'm guilty every time
Love, this love, I'm guilty every time
Love this love, Love this love
It's shocking
